

The child's first low shelf

To help your child know where his belongings are, a low open shelf is ideal to place only a few well chosen activities or toys. This shelf is made out of natural wood and is an open shelf with rounded corners.

